ABOUT ME

Entry-level Frontend Developer focused on building fast, responsive, and accessible UIs with HTML, CSS, Bootstrap, and React. Comfortable with component-based design, hooks, state management, and REST API integration. Strong fundamentals in layout (Flexbox/Grid), forms, and cross-browser compatibility. Eager to contribute to a product team, learn from code reviews, and ship polished user experiences.

- Clean, semantic HTML and modern CSS with mobile-first approach.
- React fundamentals: components, props, hooks, context, routing.
- UI quality: accessibility (ARIA), performance basics, Lighthouse checks.
